"Martin Valdzer condemns the aggression and campaign of lies

Bon, 15th April (Tanjung) - German writer Martin Valdzer condemned today the criminal aggression of NATO on Yugoslavia and particularly crazed campaign of lies in German media. '(...) Consumers of information are not given any space for their personal conclusions', said Valzer in today's 'Manhaimer morgen' from Mannheim. (...) Simultaneously he took the Austrian poet Peter Handke in his protection. As a sign of his protest against NATO aggression on Serbia, Handke returned to the Academy in Darmschtat the literary prize he got in 1973. 'It is unbelievable what media do with Handke. They disqualify him in every respect - moral, political, professional', said Martin Valzer."
